← Back Week 5 Quiz - Usable Authentication
Graded Assignment • 30 min

Due Mar 23, 11:59 PM CET

1. What type of attack would be most effective / fastest if the user's password is "hello"? 1 point

- ○ Crack
- ◉ Common Word
- ○ Brute Force
- ○ Dictionary

2. Which of the following passwords is most secure? 1 point

- ○ As34df
- ◉ sometimes extra student clever
- ○ d0gz&c4Ts
- ○ abc123

3. True or False: Two factor authentication improves the security and usability of a system. 1 point

- ○ True
- ◉ False

4. Which of the following is not a type of biometric authentication? 1 point

- ○ Voice analysis
- ○ Facial recognition
- ◉ PIN code
- ○ Free gesture

5. Which of the following is NOT a method for obtaining a second factor authentication code? 1 point

- ○ Off a device that generates codes
- ○ From an app designed to create codes
- ◉ Choosing a memorable year in one's life
- ○ In a text message

6. Which of the following is not a type of gesture based authentication? 1 point

- ○ Swiping multiple fingers in a line or shape
- ○ Connecting dots on a grid
- ○ Drawing a signature on a touch screen
- ◉ Typing in a numeric code on a keypad

7. In the paper on smudge attacks, on which phone was it easiest to find password information? 1 point

- ○ Clean screen phone with a normal touch
- ○ Phone where the password was entered with a light touch
- ◉ Phone that touched the face

8. Which of the following improves security of a traditional password system? 1 point

- ○ Requiring users to enter their password twice when they log in.
- ◉ Limitations on the number of incorrect logins in a fixed time frame
- ○ Automatically changing users' passwords every six months
- ○ Requiring users to reset their passwords once a week

9. True or false: fingerprint recognition is generally faster than password entry for authentication. 1 point

- ◉ True
- ○ False

10. Which of the following are measures of usability for authentication systems ? 1 point

- ☐ Security
- ☑ How easy it is to learn
- ☑ Likelihood of error
- ☑ Speed